but does not include any such individual in possession of a tax clearance certificate to the effect that he or she has furnished a return under section 37 for the last year of assessment for which such a return is due; or”;

(b) in paragraph 2 (“Informal traders to notify status”) by the insertion of the following subparagraph after subparagraph (2)—
“(3) The failure by an informal trader or a lessor to comply with this paragraph shall not affect such trader’s or lessor’s liability for any presumptive tax in terms of this Schedule.”;

(c) in paragraph 3 (“Collection of presumptive tax from informal trader”) by the repeal of subparagraph (1) and the substitution of—

“(1) Whenever an informal trader pays a lessor, the lessor shall recover from him or her an additional amount by way of presumptive tax, equal to the amount fixed from time to time in the Charging Act.”;

(d) by the insertion after Part IVF of the following Part—

“PART IVG

SELF-EMPLOYED PROFESSIONALS’ PRESumptIVE TAX

Payment of presumptive tax by self-employed professionals

13I. (1) Subject to this paragraph, no later than thirty days after the end of each quarter, every self-employed professional shall pay the amount of presumptive tax that is fixed from time to time in the Charging Act:

Provided that the Commissioner may, for good cause shown, allow the tax to be paid over at a later date.

(2) The amount of presumptive tax payable in terms of subparagraph (1) shall be payable at any branch, division or department of the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority responsible for assessing, collecting and enforcing the payment of taxes under this Act or through any agent of the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority notified by the Commissioner.

(3) Where a self-employed professional has paid the amount of presumptive tax due in terms of subparagraph (1), the Commissioner shall furnish the self-employed professional with the appropriate tax clearance certificate.

Interest on overdue self-employed professionals’ presumptive tax

13J. If presumptive tax is not paid timeously in terms of paragraph 13I, interest, calculated at a rate to be fixed by the Minister by statutory instrument, shall be payable on so much of the tax as remains unpaid during the period beginning on the day next following the last day provided for its payment and ending on the date the tax is paid in full:

Provided that in special circumstances the Commissioner may extend the time for payment of the tax without charging interest.”.

22 Amendment of Thirtieth Schedule to Cap. 23:06

With effect from the 1st January, 2021, the Thirtieth Schedule (“Intermediated Money Transfer Tax”) to the Income Tax Act [Chapter 23:06] is amended in paragraph 1 (“Interpretation”) (1) in the definition of “transaction on which the tax is payable” by the repeal of paragraph (t) and the substitution of—

Amendment to Value Added Tax Act [Chapter 23:12]

24 New section inserted after section 12E in Cap. 23:12

With effect from the 1st January, 2021, the Value Added Tax Act [Chapter 23:12] is amended by the insertion of the following section after section 12E—

“12F Collection of tax on exportation of medicinal cannabis, determination of value thereof

(1) In this section—

“medicinal cannabis”, means—

(a) the plant cannabis sativa and any part of the plant including the seeds thereof and all derivatives, extracts, cannabinoids, isomers, acids, salts and salts of isomers, with a delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinoid concentration of not more than 0,3% on a dry weight basis; and

(b) in respect of the cultivation or other dealing with or in which a permit has been issued in terms of the Agricultural Marketing Authority (Industrial Hemp) Regulations, 2020 (Statutory Instrument 218 of 2020), or any other law that may be substituted for the same;

“medicinal cannabis product”, means medicinal cannabis for export as described in subsection (2)(a), (b) or (c).

(2) Notwithstanding section 10(1), tax at the rate of—

(a) ten per centum on the export sale value of finished packaged medicinal cannabis oils that are ready for resale shall be levied on a supplier of such product for export from Zimbabwe;

(b) fifteen per centum on the export sale value of bulk extracted medicinal cannabis oils that require further processing or packaging shall be levied on a supplier of such product for export from Zimbabwe;

(c) twenty per centum on the export sale value of dried medicinal cannabis flowers shall be levied on a supplier of such product for export from Zimbabwe;

(3) For the purposes of this Act a medicinal cannabis product shall be deemed to be exported from Zimbabwe on the date on which such product is, in terms of section 60 of the Customs Act [Chapter 23:02], deemed to be exported.

(4) For the purposes of this Act the export sale value to be placed on the exportation of a medicinal cannabis product shall be deemed to be—

(a) the market value thereof on the date of exportation as determined by reference to a reputable exchange; or
(b) the value as reflected on the bill of entry or other document required in terms of section 54 of the Customs and Excise Act [Chapter 23:02] delivered to an officer under that Act; whichever is the higher value.

(5) Subject to section 6(1)(b), and this section, any provision of the Customs Act relating to the exportation, transit and clearance of any goods and the payment and recovery of duty shall apply, with such changes as may be necessary, as if enacted in terms of this Act, whether or not the said provisions apply for the purposes of any duty levied in terms of the Customs Act.”.

25 Amendment of section 13 of Cap. 23:12

With effect from the 1st January, 2021, the Value Added Tax Act [Chapter 23:12] is amended in section 13 (“Collection of value-added tax on imported services, determination of value thereof and exemptions”) (1) by the deletion of “within thirty days of the date referred to in subsection (2)” and the substitution of “within the period ending on the twenty-fifth day of the first month commencing after the month of the date of supply referred to in subsection (2)”.

26 Amendment of section 23 of Cap. 23:12

With effect from the 1st January, 2021, the Value Added Tax Act [Chapter 23:12] is amended in section 23 (“Registration of persons making supplies in the course of trade”) (3) by insertion of the following proviso thereto—

“Provided that any person holding a special mining lease in terms of the Mines and Minerals Act who commences development for mining purposes in the year of assessment for income tax purposes beginning on the 1st January, 2020, shall be deemed for the purpose of this subsection to qualify for registration under this Act with effect from the 1st January, 2020.”.

27 Amendment of section 50A of Cap. 23:12

With effect from the 1st January, 2021, the ValueAdded Tax Act [Chapter 23:12] is amended in section 50A (“Commissioner may appoint value added withholding tax agents”) by the repeal of subsection (2) and the substitution of—

“(2) Every value added withholding tax agent shall—

(a) withhold the portion of the full amount of output tax specified in the Charging Act from each amount to be paid to a specified operator, in the currency in which the goods and services concerned were purchased; and

(b) remit each amount so withheld to the Commissioner on or before the 15th of the following month or any other date that Commissioner may fix in the specifying notice or prescribe (and if the amount so remitted is not remitted in the currency in which the goods and services concerned were purchased, the value added withholding tax agent shall be deemed, for the purposes of subsection (6), not to have withheld and remitted the amount of value added withholding tax due in terms of this subsection).”.

PART IV

CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

28 New section inserted after section 49C of Cap. 23:02

The Customs and Excise Act [Chapter 23:02] is amended by the insertion of the following section after section 49C—

“49D Zimbabwe Revenue Authority to discharge vehicle registration functions at ports of entry

(1) Subject to this section, the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority is hereby appointed as the agent of the Central Vehicle Registry (the Department in the Ministry responsible for transport charged with the registration of vehicles under the Vehicle Registration and Licensing Act [Chapter 13:14]) for the purposes of sections 49A, 49B and 49C, and shall discharge all functions of the Registry in terms of the Vehicle Registration and Licensing Act [Chapter 13:14] at all ports of entry, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in that Act.

(2) To maintain the integrity, consistency and uniformity of records as between the Central Vehicle Registry and the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority, the Central Vehicle Registry (on behalf of the Ministry of Transport and Infrastructure Development or any other Ministry as may from time to time host the Central Vehicle Registry), and the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority shall enter into a memorandum of agreement (“memorandum”) providing, among other things, for the following—

(a) the payment to the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority of a minimum of a one term Vehicle Licensing Fee in respect of each vehicle licensed by it at a port of entry; and

(b) full disclosure by the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority to the Central Vehicle Registry of all relevant particulars related to the implementation of sections 49A, 49B and 49C; and

(c) the secondment of persons employed in the Central Vehicle Registry to the service of the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority to enable the Authority to implement this section; and

(d) unhindered access by officers of the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority to all premises, books, accounts and other documents of or in the custody of the Central Vehicle Registry related to the implementation of sections 49A, 49B and 49C; and

(e) the provision of assistance by the Central Vehicle Registry for the adequate training of personnel employed or retained by the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority to ensure the integrity, consistency and uniformity of records as between the Central Vehicle Registry and the Zimbabwe Revenue Authority.

(3) Until such time as the memorandum between Zimbabwe Revenue Authority and the Central Vehicle Registry is concluded, the Commissioner is hereby empowered to give to the Registrar of Vehicles appointed in terms of section 3 of the Vehicle Registration and Licensing Act [Chapter 13:14] binding directives in connection with the implementation of anything that would otherwise be required to be included in the memorandum under subsection (2)(a), (b), (c), (d) and (e).”
29 Amendment of section 98E of Cap 23:02

Section 98E ("Registration of registered users and suspension or cancellation of registration")(3) of the Customs and Excise Act [Chapter 23:02] is amended by the repeal of paragraph (a) and the substitution of—

“(a) is a clearing agent licensed under this Act, an importer, exporter or a person who will make regular use of the computer system established in terms of section 98;”.

30 Amendment of section 188 of Cap. 23:02

Section 188 ("Goods and ships, aircraft, vehicles or other things liable to forfeiture") of the Customs and Excise Act [Chapter 23:02] is amended by the insertion of the following subsections after subsection (2b)—

“(2c) Any person who makes available his or her ship, aircraft or vehicle for the crossborder carriage into and offloading in Zimbabwe of goods, having earlier made at any port of entry a false declaration in relation to those goods or part of those goods that his or her ship, aircraft or vehicle is in transit through Zimbabwe, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine equivalent to three times the declared value of the offloaded goods.

(2d) For the purposes of subsection (2c), it shall be presumed that the goods there mentioned were offloaded in contravention of that provision if the ship, aircraft or vehicle did not exit Zimbabwe through a port of entry within the prescribed or authorised period.”.

31 New section substituted for section 223 of Cap. 23:02

Section 223 of the Customs and Excise Act [Chapter 23:02] is repealed and the following is substituted—

“223 Persons carrying on business to keep proper books and records

(1) In this section—

“records” includes any correspondence, computer printout, audited reports, income and expenditure accounts and other documents in whatever form, electronic or manual, and by whatever name, which are related to the importation, exportation, transportation, customs clearance, valuation, costing, payment or disposal of goods required to be accounted for under this Act or any other law related to customs and excise;

“person carrying on any business which involves handling or dealing in goods or the supply of services” includes traders, declarants, importers, exporters, consignees of imported goods and services, owners of imported or exported goods and services, anyone in possession of imported goods, customs brokers, clearing agents, transporters, freight forwarders, operators of customs controlled areas and other natural persons or companies directly or indirectly dealing with transactions for the traders’ goods and services;

(2) Every person carrying on in Zimbabwe any business which involves handling or dealing in goods or the supply of services shall keep or cause to be kept within Zimbabwe, in the English language and for a period of not less than six years all or any of the following records as may be appropriate to his or her business—
(a) proper records and books of account of all transactions, which include ledgers, cash-books, cheques, bank statements, deposit slips, stock sheets, invoices and all other books of account relating to any trade involving the importation, exportation, transportation, customs clearance, warehousing, selling or buying of any goods or services required to be accounted for under this Act or any other law related to customs and excise; and

(b) records of all goods and services supplied by or to the person, showing the goods and services, and the suppliers or their agents, in sufficient detail to enable the goods and services, and the suppliers or the agents, to be readily identified by the Commissioner, and all invoices, tax invoices, credit notes, debit notes, bank statements, deposit slips, stock lists, paid cheques and proof of payments relating thereto; and

(c) records of all raw materials received, production sheets and finished goods and services produced as well as formulae used in the production process; and

(d) records pertaining to the selling, buying for resale, importation, production, warehousing or exportation of goods including but not limited to bills of entry, bills of lading, invoices, manifests, rail notes, consignment notes, airway bills, packing lists and all other documents relating to any goods or services required to be accounted for in terms of this Act or any other law relating to Customs and Excise; and

(e) records pertaining to the movement, receiving, storage and disposal of the goods or services including but not limited to stock registers, stock movement sheets, goods received vouchers, inventory or stock take balances, proof of deliveries, delivery notes, invoices, and receipts; and

(f) the charts and codes of account, the accounting instruction manuals and the system and programme documentation which describe the accounting system used in the supply of goods and services; and

(g) any other document or record relating to the conduct of business under this Act or any other law relating to customs and excise.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to—

(a) a fine not exceeding level 14; or

(b) a fine equivalent to three times the duty-paid value of the goods in respect of the payment of which an officer requested the production of the records, documents or books in question; whichever is the greater amount, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.”.

32 New sections substituted for section 223A in Cap. 23:02

The Customs and Excise Act [Chapter 23:02] is amended by repeal of section 223A and the substitution of the following sections—
“223A Post-clearance audit

(1) A declaration made for the purposes of making entry in terms of section 38 which contains any omission, inconsistency, error or misrepresentation shall be invalid whether or not such declaration has been accepted by an officer:

Provided that such invalidity shall not affect the use of such declaration as evidence of the commission of any offence under this Act.

(2) An invalid declaration shall be validated by the person making such declaration in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed.

(3) Any goods not properly declared shall be deemed to be uncustomed goods.

(4) The Commissioner or proper officer, after releasing the goods subject to entry and in order to satisfy himself or herself as to the accuracy of the particulars contained in the declaration, may undertake a post-clearance audit or verification in relation to those goods, that is to say he or she or any authorised officer or person may—

(a) carry out inspections at the premises of the owner of the goods, or at the place to which the goods are destined, or at the premises where any documentation or data relating to the goods in question is located or may reasonably be expected to be found; and

(b) question any person at any premises or place referred to in paragraph (a), or any person having possession or custody of the documentation or data there referred to; and

(c) at any premises or place referred to in paragraph (a), inspect or examine the goods, and any books, written records, computer records, and other data or documentation relating to the import, export or subsequent disposal of the goods in question; and

(d) take possession of and remove or make extracts from or make copies of the records, data or documentation referred to in paragraph (c); and

(e) at any premises or a place referred to in paragraph (a) take samples of any good for the purposes of determining the customs value, classification or origin; and

(f) liaise with other foreign customs or revenue administrations in terms of any mutual administrative agreements with a view to validating any transaction, document or information used in the importation, exportation, payment or transportation of any goods.

(5) The audit shall be conducted during normal business or working hours. The officers shall be entitled to enter and inspect sites and business premises with the assistance of the owner of the premises or his or her representative. A room suitable for conducting the audit as well as necessary aids such as internet connectivity shall be provided free of charge for this purpose:

Provided that where a document or record keeping system in a foreign language is presented to a proper officer in relation to the carrying out of any duty or the exercise of any power under this Act or any other Act, the officer may require the person who presented the document or the system to supply to the officer an English translation of the document or the system prepared by a person approved by the officer, at the expense of the person who presented the document.

223B Report of audit findings

(1) Where, by reason of the conduct of an audit under section
223A, the officer —
(a) does not find any irregularity or contravention of this Act or any law relating to customs and excise, the officer shall make a report in writing of the audit and indicate in the report the non-discovery of any irregularity or contravention of this Act or any law relating to customs and excise; or
(b) finds any irregularity or contravention of the Act or any law relating to customs and excise, the officer shall—
(i) subject to subsection (2), make a report in writing of the discovery of the irregularity or contravention; and (ii) submit a copy of the report to the Commissioner or proper officer and to the person who is the subject of the audit in such format as may be specified by the Commissioner.

(2) Where the Commissioner or authorised officer, during the conduct of an audit, makes any copies of, or retains, any documents, records or other information examined by the officer, the report referred to in subsection (1)(b)(i) shall—
(a) contain all information or extracts from the copies of the documents, records or other information examined; and
(b) be accompanied by the documents, records or other information retained.

223C Redetermination of value, origin and tariff

(1) Where the Commissioner or proper officer receives a report under section 223B, the Commissioner or proper officer may issue a notice to re-determine the declared tariff classification, the declared origin of goods or the declared customs value.

(2) Every notice issued by the Commissioner in terms of subsection (1) shall be accompanied by an explanation as to the reasons of the redetermination.

(3) Any person who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner to issue a notice under subsection (1) may, within thirty days of receipt of the notice, appeal to the Commissioner to reconsider the decision.

(4) Every appeal shall be accompanied by a copy of the notice to re-determine the declared tariff clarification, declared origin or declared customs value and a statement specifying the grounds for the reconsideration.

(5) The Commissioner shall, within thirty days of the receipt of the application and the accompanying documents referred to in subsection (2), reconsider the decision or allow the decision to stand and inform the applicant of that decision.
(6) If the appellant is dissatisfied by the Commissioner’s decision in terms of subsection (5), he or she may appeal to the Fiscal Appeal Court in terms of the Fiscal Appeal Court Act [Chapter 23:05].

(7) Where circumstances require the amendment of a declaration after the goods have been released, the Commissioner having informed the importer of the goods of his or her decision to re-determine either the tariff, customs value or origin, the importer shall amend the declaration in terms of this section within such a period as the Commissioner shall in writing specify:

Provided that where the importer has on his own volition approached the Commissioner with a view to amending any declaration made in terms of section 38 of the Act, no penalties that would ordinarily have been levied or applied in terms of this Act shall be levied or be applied by the Commissioner.

223D Confidentiality in connection with post-clearance audit

(1) In the course of discharging his or her duties under section 223A, 223B and 223C, the Commissioner or the person authorised by him or her shall be bound by provisions of sections 210(1), 210(2) and 210A.

(2) At the conclusion of the audit, the Commissioner shall ensure that any information obtained and retained by him or her in terms of section 223A, 223B and 223C, shall be treated with confidentiality and that only persons authorised by him or her shall have access thereto.

(3) Before the Commissioner authorises any person to exercise any authority, powers or privileges under section 223A, 223B and 223C, he or she must ensure that the person is made aware of the provisions of section 34A(6) of the Revenue Act [Chapter 23:11].

223E Requirement to provide information and give access to books and records

(1) A person to whom section 223 applies shall, when so required by a proper officer or authorised officer—

(a) provide requisite information or documents, and make available and give access to the books and records that the person is required to keep under that section;

(b) ensure that the proper officer has access to the books and records, at or within the prescribed time;

(c) answer any question relevant to matters arising under this Act put to the person by the officer in respect of those documents, books, records, or other information;

(e) provide working space and personnel to assist the officer in the performance of his or her duties; and

(f) provide copies of the books and records to the officer.

(2) Where information is recorded or stored by means of an electronic or other device, the person referred to in subsection (1), or the agent of that person, shall, at the request of a proper or authorised officer, operate the device, or cause it to be operated, in order to make the information available to the officer.
(3) Any information, books and records provided to the officer by the person referred to in subsection (1) shall be true, accurate, and complete.

(4) Any person referred to subsection (1) or other person designated by him or her shall give the officer all the necessary assistance, answer truthfully any question and provide the explanations that are necessary to understand the records to enable the officer to execute his or her duties.

(5) Any person, who fails without reasonable cause to comply with this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to—
   (a) a fine not exceeding level fourteen; or
   (b) a fine equivalent to three times the duty-paid value of the goods in respect of the payment of which an officer requested information and access to books and records; whichever is the greater amount, or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

33 Substitution of Schedule to Cap. 23:02

The Customs and Excise Act [Chapter 23:02] is amended by the repeal of the Schedule and the substitution of—

(a) by the insertion after “extraction of” of ‘such mineral as may be prescribed by the Minister in consultation with the Minister responsible for Mines and the Minister responsible for Finance;

(b) by the repeal of paragraphs (a) and (b).

37 New section inserted in Chapter 24:20

The Banking Act [Chapter 24:20] is amended by the insertion of the following section after section 78—
“78B International financial services centres

(1) In this section—
“foreign-based banking institution” and “foreign-based financial institution” means an institution that—
(a) is domiciled in a foreign country for at least five years at the time it seeks to be licensed to operate in the international financial services centre in accordance with this section; and
(b) in the case of—
(i) a banking institution has obtained a foreign banking licence in terms of this Act; and
(ii) a financial institution has obtained a licence to establish an office or subsidiary in Zimbabwe in terms of this Act or any other enactment regulating the institution in question;

“locally-based banking institution” and “locally-based financial institution” means an institution that is registered to operate in and domiciled in Zimbabwe for at least five years at the time it seeks to be licensed to operate in the international financial services centre in accordance with this section.

(2) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, declare any area established as a Special Economic Zone in terms of the Zimbabwe Investment and Development Agency Act (No. 10 of 2019) to be an international financial services centre where foreign-based banking and financial institutions and locally-based banking and financial institutions may carry on their business and, in regulations made under section 81, the Minister may—
(a) prescribe terms and conditions under which banking and financial institutions may be established and carry on business in an international financial centre;
(b) notwithstanding any other enactment, exempt any banking or financial institution which carries on business in an international financial services centre from compliance, wholly or partially, with any provision of this Act or any other enactment relating to the conduct of their business:
Provided that the Minister shall not grant an exemption from the provisions of an enactment whose administration has been assigned to another Minister unless that other Minister has agreed to the exemption;
(c) make provision for any other matter that will encourage the development of international financial services centres and facilitate the operations of banking and financial institutions within them.”.
