RESERVE BANK OF ZIMBABWE

Renaissance Merchant Bank Limited placed under The Management of a Curator by the Reserve Bank of Zimbabwe

MEMBERS of the public are advised that on Thursday, 2nd June 2011 at 1430 hours the Reserve Bank of Zimbabwe served a direction upon ReNaissance Merchant Bank Limited (ReNaissance Merchant Bank) placing it under the management of a curator for a period of six (6) months. The direction was served in accordance with the provisions of the Banking Act [Chapter 24:20]. At the same time the Reserve Bank appointed Mr. Reggie Saruchera of Grant Thornton Camelsa as the curator.

The Reserve Bank took this action upon determining that ReNaissance Merchant Bank is not in a sound financial condition. In particular the unsafe and unsound condition of ReNaissance Merchant Bank is attributable to inadequate capitalization, poor corporate governance practices and internal controls, high level of non-performing insider and related party exposures, chronic liquidity and income generation challenges as well as violation of banking laws and regulations.

The primary purpose of the curatorship is to protect depositors, preserve the assets of the ReNaissance Merchant Bank and protect the stability of the financial system.

One of the consequences of placing ReNaissance Merchant Bank under the management of a curator is that the institution of all legal proceedings and the execution of writs, warrants, summons, etc. is now stayed unless the High Court otherwise grants leave. Another consequence is to suspend the powers of every director, officer and shareholder of ReNaissance Merchant Bank, except to the extent that the curator may permit them to exercise such powers.

Members of the public are advised that ReNaissance Merchant Bank will remain open to the banking public as the institution will continue to provide financial services at the discretion of the curator. The curator will takeover and assume the management of ReNaissance Merchant Bank in such a manner as he considers prudent and most likely to promote the interests of the institution, its depositors and creditors.

In order to preserve the financial resources of the ReNaissance Merchant Bank and, further, to prevent the uncontrolled withdrawal of funds and assets from ReNaissance Merchant Bank, the banking institution will, however, temporarily close its doors to the public on 3rd June, 2011 for a period of two weeks to facilitate the Curator's assumption of effective charge of the bank. Accordingly, ReNaissance Merchant Bank will re-open its doors to the banking public by Monday 20th June, 2011 under the management of the Curator.

We implore the public to exercise patience during the period of temporary closure of the bank which is critical for a smooth handover/takeover in terms of the due process.

The handover/takeover process entails: securing the bank's assets and records; ascertaining the exact balances of the institution's assets and liabilities; drawing the institution's statement of affairs at the beginning of the curatorship period; facilitate effective control over the bank's ICT infrastructure and ensuring availability of adequate back-up and business continuity arrangements.

The curator will, in due course, recommend to the Reserve Bank how the financial situation of ReNaissance Merchant Bank should be resolved.

The Reserve Bank of Zimbabwe has taken this action because it considers it to be in the best interests of depositors and creditors, and of ReNaissance Merchant Bank itself and also of the banking sector in general.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF THE RESERVE BANK OF ZIMBABWE

REGISTRAR OF BANKING INSTITUTIONS.

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Conditions of Acceptance of Copy

FAILURE to comply with any of the following conditions will result in the rejection of copy, and no responsibility can be accepted if such rejection should affect any date contained in such copy or any requirement of publication on a specific date.

Persons drafting any kind of notices are strongly advised to follow the guidance offered in—

- (a) the Instructions Relating to the Drafting and Typing of Legislation (Attorney-General's Circular 1 of 1978); and
- (b) the Manual of Style for the Drafting and Preparation of copy published by Printflow (Private) Limited; which two booklets are intended for complementary use.

In these conditions, other than where a particular kind of copy is specified, "copy" means copy for all matter contained in the Gazette itself and for subsidiary legislation issued as supplements to the Gazette.

1. (1) Other than by prior arrangements, only original typing is accepted.

(2) Carbon-copies are not normally acceptable, other than in cases where the original typing has to be legally retained, elsewhere, as, for example, in the case of a proclamation.

(3) Computer print-outs are not accepted automatically, as discussion may be necessary with regard to the extra time and costs involved.

2. (1) All copy must be clear and legible, and there must be double or one and a half spacing between the lines.

(2) Any corrections or alterations made by the originator, must be clearly effected in blue or black ink, using editorial marks—not proof-reader's marks:

Provided that any copy containing extensive alterations will be rejected.

3. (1) Copy must appear on one side only of each sheet of paper.

(2) Except as is provided in subsection (2) of section 8, paper must not exceed 210 millimetres in width.

(3) If copy comprises two or more sheets of paper, all sheets must be numbered consecutively, in arabic figures, preferably in the top right-hand corner.

(4) Where any matter is added after the copy has been prepared, and such additional matter results in one or more sheets being inserted between those already numbered, all sheets must be renumbered from there onwards—not, for instance 7, 7b, 8, et cetera.

4. Photographic copy or copy produced on a duplicating machine may be accepted if it is abundantly clear.

5. (1) Should any copy—

- (a) exceed 10 pages of double-spaced typing on size A4 paper; or
- (b) contain tabular or other matter which involves complicated setting;

it will be classed as "lengthy" copy, and will be required to be submitted not less than 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which it is to be published.

(2) Lengthy copy may be accepted at less than 21 days' notice if—

- (a) the work involved is of a straight forward and non-tabular nature; and
- (b) the total volume of work on hand for the time being permits its acceptance.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these conditions, any copy—

- (a) which is of national importance, and which is originated as a matter of urgent necessity, may, by prior arrangement, be accepted late for the current week;
- (b) may, due to shortage of staff or to technical considerations, be delayed until conditions permit its processing.

7. Copy must not be submitted as part of a letter or a requisition. It must appear on a separate sheet of paper, on which there is no instruction or other extraneous matter.

8. (1) In cases where notices have to be published in tabular form, copy must be drafted exactly as it is to appear. If printed forms for any such notices are unavailable, advertisers must prepare their own forms. While it is not necessary to include the preamble, the box-headings must be there, and, where applicable, the number of the form; for example, "Insolvency Regulations—Form 3".

(2) In the case of copy for tabular notices, the provision of subsection (2) of section 3 does not apply.

9. Copy for all advertisements, whether sent by post or delivered by hand, must be accompanied by a requisition or a letter which clearly sets out—

- (a) the name and address of the advertiser; and
- (b) the debtor's code number, if any; and
- (c) the required date or dates of publication.

10. If a typographical error occurs in the Gazette, it is rectified as soon as possible by a correcting notice without charge to the ministry or department concerned, subject to the following conditions—

- (a) that such error is reported to the editor within three months from the date of publication; and
- (b) that the relevant copy, upon re-examination, is proved to be abundantly clear; and
- (c) that the correction of such error is legally necessary.

(2) If a drafting error is not detected before publication, the originating ministry or department is required to draft its own correcting notice, take it to the Attorney-General for vetting and pay for such notice to be published.

- (3) For the removal of doubt—
- (a) a typographical error is made by a typographer;
- (b) a typist's error is classed as a drafting error by reason of the fact that the officer responsible for drafting failed to check the typist's work.

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Submission of Copy for Government Gazette Statutory Instruments and Notices

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that it is necessary to draw attention to the "Conditions for Acceptance of Copy", which appears in every issue of the Gazette; and particularly the need to submit lengthy copy, in the case of Statutory Instruments, at least 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which the notice is to be published.

During the past few months or so there have been many cases where urgent copy for subsidiary legislation, which requires the signature of the President or a minister to give it effect, and which is of national importance, has been sent in for publication in the Gazette after closing-time. Whilst I acknowledge that it is the duty of Printflow (Private) Limited to give certain notices special treatment, I am, however, of the view that a Gazette Extraordinary has tended to be a must rather than a matter of priority in respect of unwarranted delays of urgent copy.

While every effort will continue to be made to publish Extraordinaries on the required dates, copy must be submitted timeously so that it can be programmed into the printing-work-flow as soon as it is available.

H. MATINGWINA,
Gazette Editor.
