General Notice 2227 of 2021.

INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT BANK OF ZIMBABWE (IDBZ)

Request for Expressions of Interest for Provision of Consulting Services (Firms Selection)

Tender number

Subject: Engagement of a Consulting Firm to undertake a Survey on Abandoned Vehicle Shells and Associated Metal Objects in Harare and Bulawayo.

Brief description: Expression of Interest for Engagement of a Consulting Firm to undertake a Survey on Abandoned Vehicle Shells and Associated Metal Objects in Harare and Bulawayo.

Proposal reference number: IDBZ 132 of 2021.

Section I

1. Background

An article from the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) highlighting the challenges faced by developing countries in disposing shells of millions of used cars, vans and minibuses exported from Europe, the US, Singapore, and Japan was shared with the Infrastructure Development Bank of Zimbabwe (IDBZ), therein after referred to as the Bank, on 28th October, 2020. The article highlighted that the vehicles exported to developing countries are of poor mechanical condition and quality, a major contributor to air pollution and climate change. It was observed that the vehicle shells are mostly abandoned in homes, garages and along highways at the end of their life span or when they are damaged beyond repair through accidents.

In Zimbabwe, abandoned vehicle shells, mainly a result of road accidents, are a common sight on the country's highways.

Other areas where abandoned vehicles can be seen include public car parks, garages, along roads in residential areas and highways, people's residences in both urban and rural areas. This points to a real dilemma associated with disposal of the shells in Zimbabwe. There is need for a sustainable solution to the current haphazard disposal of car shells and the associated negative aesthetic, environmental and social impacts.

The extent of the problem of abandoned vehicle shells and associated metal objects in Zimbabwe is not documented. As such, it is difficult to estimate the magnitude of the problem. It is against this background that the Bank is sponsoring a survey to establish the extent of the problem in Harare and Bulawayo, and the highway between the two cities. The survey is expected to come up with an inventory of the abandoned vehicles and objects in each of the two cities. The data will be used to find alternative ways to sustainably manage the challenge of abandoned vehicles and objects in Zimbabwe.

2. Geographic Location of the Project

The proposed survey will be done in Harare and Bulawayo Metropolitan Provinces. It will also cover the entire highway between the two cities, accounting for any such shells and related metal objects on roadsides.

3. Objectives of the Survey

The purpose of the survey is to determine the extent of the problem of abandoned vehicle shells and associated metal objects in Zimbabwe using Harare and Bulawayo as case studies.

The specific objectives are:

- To determine the policy position of the two (2) cities with regards to the handling and disposal of vehicle shells and associated metal objects.
- To develop a comprehensive inventory of players, both formal and informal, in the scrap metal industry in the two (2) cities and investigate their capacity to recover and recycle/reuse vehicle shells and associated metal objects.
- To determine the extent of the abandoned vehicle shells and associated metal objects problem in each of the two (2) cities.
- To investigate the nature of environmental and social impacts associated with abandoned vehicle shells and associated metal objects.
- To make recommendations on how the IDBZ can intervene to bring about a sustainable solution to the problem in the two (2) cities and at national level.

Knowledge generated from this survey is expected to help rid the environment of the vehicle shell and metal objects menace while at the same time creating a livelihood for some people.

4. Scope of Assignment

The following are the terms of reference for the study and the consultant may include other activities to achieve the objectives of the study:

- Development of an appropriate study methodology – The Consultant will develop an appropriate study methodology (including the key assumptions) and survey instruments which will enable the determination of the extent of the problem in the two cities.
- Conducting the survey – The Consultant will carry out the study based on the proposed methodology.
- Stakeholder consultation – The Consultant shall undertake a gender inclusive stakeholder consultation involving the two (2) local authorities, relevant Government departments, parastatals, businesses, and business associations dealing with metal waste. A preliminary list of stakeholders for the survey should be included in the technical proposal.
- Reporting – The Consultant will compile a report with findings of the study including an inventory of the vehicle and metal waste, opportunities, and action plan for addressing the challenge of abandoned vehicle shells and associated metal objects.

Conditions of Acceptance of Copy

FAILURE to comply with any of the following conditions will result in the rejection of copy, and no responsibility can be accepted if such rejection should affect any date contained in such copy or any requirement of publication on a specific date.

Persons drafting any kind of notices are strongly advised to follow the guidance offered in—

- (a) the Instructions Relating to the Drafting and Typing of Legislation (Attorney-General's Circular 1 of 1978); and
- (b) the Manual of Style for the Drafting and Preparation of copy published by Printflow (Private) Limited; which two booklets are intended for complementary use.

In these conditions, other than where a particular kind of copy is specified, "copy" means copy for all matter contained in the Gazette itself and for subsidiary legislation issued as supplements to the Gazette.

1. (1) Other than by prior arrangements, only original typing is accepted.

(2) Carbon-copies are not normally acceptable, other than in cases where the original typing has to be legally retained, elsewhere, as, for example, in the case of a proclamation.

(3) Computer print-outs are not accepted automatically, as discussion may be necessary with regard to the extra time and costs involved.

2. (1) All copy must be clear and legible, and there must be double or one and a half spacing between the lines.

(2) Any corrections or alterations made by the originator, must be clearly effected in blue or black ink, using editorial marks—not proof-reader's marks:

Provided that any copy containing extensive alterations will be rejected.

3. (1) Copy must appear on one side only of each sheet of paper.

(2) Except as is provided in subsection (2) of section 8, paper must not exceed 210 millimetres in width.

(3) If copy comprises two or more sheets of paper, all sheets must be numbered consecutively, in arabic figures, preferably in the top right-hand corner.

(4) Where any matter is added after the copy has been prepared, and such additional matter results in one or more sheets being inserted between those already numbered, all sheets must be renumbered from there onwards—not, for instance 7, 7b, 8, et cetera.

4. Photographic copy or copy produced on a duplicating machine may be accepted if it is abundantly clear.

5. (1) Should any copy—

- (a) exceed 10 pages of double-spaced typing on size A4 paper; or
- (b) contain tabular or other matter which involves complicated setting; it will be classed as "lengthy" copy, and will be required to be submitted not less than 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which it is to be published.

(2) Lengthy copy may be accepted at less than 21 days' notice if—

- (a) the work involved is of a straight forward and non-tabular nature; and
- (b) the total volume of work on hand for the time being permits its acceptance.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these conditions, any copy—

- (a) which is of national importance, and which is originated as a matter of urgent necessity, may, by prior arrangement, be accepted late for the current week; may, due to shortage of staff or to technical considerations, be delayed until conditions permit its processing.

7. Copy must not be submitted as part of a letter or a requisition. It must appear on a separate sheet of paper, on which there is no instruction or other extraneous matter.

8. (1) In cases where notices have to be published in tabular form, copy must be drafted exactly as it is to appear. If printed forms for any such notices are unavailable, advertisers must prepare their own forms. While it is not necessary to include the preamble, the box-headings must be there, and, where applicable, the number of the form; for example, "Insolvency Regulations—Form 3".

(2) In the case of copy for tabular notices, the provision of subsection (2) of section 3 does not apply.

9. Copy for all advertisements, whether sent by post or delivered by hand, must be accompanied by a requisition or a letter which clearly sets out—

- (a) the name and address of the advertiser; and
- (b) the debtor's code number, if any; and
- (c) the required date or dates of publication.

10. If a typographical error occurs in the Gazette, it is rectified as soon as possible by a correcting notice without charge to the ministry or department concerned, subject to the following conditions—

- (a) that such error is reported to the editor within three months from the date of publication; and
- (b) that the relevant copy, upon re-examination, is proved to be abundantly clear; and
- (c) that the correction of such error is legally necessary.

(2) If a drafting error is not detected before publication, the originating ministry or department is required to draft its own correcting notice, take it to the Attorney-General for vetting and pay for such notice to be published.

(3) For the removal of doubt—

- (a) a typographical error is made by a typographer;
- (b) a typist's error is classed as a drafting error by reason of the fact that the officer responsible for drafting failed to check the typist's work.

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Submission of Copy for Government Gazette Statutory Instruments and Notices

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that it is necessary to draw attention to the "Conditions for Acceptance of Copy", which appears in every issue of the Gazette; and particularly the need to submit lengthy copy, in the case of Statutory Instruments, at least 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which the notice is to be published.

During the past few months or so there have been many cases where urgent copy for subsidiary legislation, which requires the signature of the President or a minister to give it effect, and which is of national importance, has been sent in for publication in the Gazette after closing-time. Whilst I acknowledge that it is the duty of Printflow (Private) Limited to give certain notices special treatment, I am, however, of the view that a Gazette Extraordinary has tended to be a must rather than a matter of priority in respect of unwarranted delays of urgent copy.

While every effort will continue to be made to publish Extraordinaries on the required dates, copy must be submitted timeously so that it can be programmed into the printing-work-flow as soon as it is available.

H. MATINGWINA,
Gazette Editor.

SHERIFF'S SALES

Conditions of sale

- The sale is conducted in terms of the rules of the High Court, which provide that it shall be without reserve but subject to the condition that the Sheriff requires to be satisfied that the highest price offered is reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of time and place and the state of the property.
- After the auction, a report on the bidding and on the highest price offered, together with any other relevant information relating to the sale, will be forwarded to the Sheriff, who, if satisfied that the highest price offered is reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of time and place and the state of the property, will declare the highest bidder to be the purchaser.
- In terms of the rules of court, any person having an interest in the sale may, within seven days of the Sheriff having declared the highest bidder to be the purchaser, apply to the High Court to have it set aside on the grounds that the sale was improperly conducted or the property was sold for an unreasonably low sum, or any other good ground.
- In the event of no application being made within the said period of seven days the Sheriff shall confirm the sale.
- During the auction, should any dispute arise as to any bid the property will be put up for sale again.
- The right is reserved to the auctioneer of regulating or refusing any bid.
- The sale shall be for cash and, in addition, the purchaser shall pay—
 - the auctioneer's commission; and
 - the costs of transfer, including conveyancer's charges, stamp-duty and any other fees; and
 - all arrear rates and charges, and any other expenses necessary to complete the transfer.
- Immediately after conclusion of the auction the highest bidder shall, unless other arrangements are made with the auctioneer, deposit with the auctioneer an amount sufficient to cover the auctioneer's commission, and either—
 - advise the Commissioner appointed by the Sheriff, attending the sale of the manner in which he intends to make payment of the purchase-price and other costs and charges in terms of these conditions, and satisfy the Commissioner as to his bona fides and ability to meet his obligations; or
 - effect payment to the Commissioner of the whole of the purchase-price in cash or by cheque or bank draft drawn to the order of the Sheriff.
- The purchase-money, if not paid in full to the Commissioner at the conclusion of the auction shall be paid on or before the registration of the transfer of the property into the name of the purchaser, unless the Sheriff approves other arrangements for discharging the amount due by the purchaser.
- The purchaser shall be liable to pay interest at the rate of twenty-five per cent. per annum in respect of any unpaid balance of the purchase-price with effect from seven days after the date of confirmation of the sale by the Sheriff.
- If the purchaser fails to make payment of the purchase-price and other costs and charges in terms of these conditions of sale, or fails to comply with any conditions of the sale contained herein, the Sheriff shall have the right to apply to a judge of the High Court to have the sale cancelled, and to hold the purchaser liable for any loss or damages sustained, or to employ any other remedy which he may have. In the event of the sale being cancelled, the purchaser shall not be entitled to any increase which the property may realize at a subsequent sale.
- The property is sold as represented by the title-deeds the Sheriff not holding himself liable for any deficiency whatsoever, and renouncing all excess; and the Sheriff does not hold himself responsible for the determination of the boundaries and beacons which shall be the responsibility of the purchaser.
- The property shall be at the risk and profit of the purchaser from the date upon which the Sheriff confirms the sale and the Sheriff gives no warranty of vacant possession.
- The highest bidder may not withdraw his bid in terms of these conditions of sale prior to the date of confirmation of the sale or rejection of his offer by the Sheriff.

It is hereby notified that the Minister of Home Affairs and Cultural Heritage has, in terms of section 3(3) of the Extradition Treaty Act [Chapter 9:08], made the following Treaty—

1. This Treaty may be cited as the Extradition Treaty with China, 2021.

2. This Extradition Treaty was entered into with the Republic of China on the 5th of September, 2018, and shall come into effect from the day of its publication.

3. The extradition treaty set out in the Schedule shall have force of law subject to the provisions of the Act.

SCHEDULE

TREATY BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF ZIMBABWE AND THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA ON EXTRADITION

Preamble

The Republic of Zimbabwe and the People's Republic of China (hereinafter referred to as “the Parties” and individually as “the Party”);

DESIROUS to promote the effective cooperation between the two countries in the suppression of crime on the basis of mutual respect for sovereignty, equality and mutual benefit;

INTENDING to facilitate relations in the area of extradition by concluding a Treaty on Extradition.

Have agreed as follows—

ARTICLE 1

Definitions

“Requesting Party” means the Party requesting extradition in terms of this Treaty;

“Requested Party” means a Party which is requested to extradite in terms of this Treaty.

ARTICLE 2

Obligation to extradite

Each Party undertakes to extradite to the other, in accordance with the provisions of this Treaty, and at the Requesting Party, persons found in its territory and wanted by the other Party for the purposes of conducting criminal proceedings against or executing sentence imposed on such fines.

ARTICLE 3

Extraditable Offences

1. Extradition shall not be granted unless the conduct for which the extradition is sought constitutes an offence under the laws of both Parties and meets one of the following conditions:

- (a) where the request for extradition is made for the purpose of conducting criminal proceedings, the offence is punishable under the laws of both Parties by the penalty of imprisonment for a period of at least one (1) year or by any heavier penalty; or
- (b) where the request for extradition is made for the purpose of executing a sentence of imprisonment, a period of sentence that remains to be served by the person sought is at least six (6) months at the time when the request for extradition is made.

2. In determining whether a conduct constitutes an offence under the laws of both Parties in accordance with Paragraph 1 of this Article, it shall not matter whether the laws of the both Parties place the conduct within the same category of offence or denominate the offence by the same terminology.

3. If the request for extradition concerns two or more conducts each of which constitutes offence under the laws of both Parties and at least one of which fulfils the conditions provided for in Paragraph 1 of this Article, the requested Party may grant extradition for all of those conducts.

ARTICLE 4

Mandatory Grounds for Refusal

Extradition shall be refused if:

- (a) the Requested Party considers that the offence for which the extradition is requested is a political offence, or that the Requested Party has granted asylum to the person sought. But terrorism offence or the offence which is not regarded as a political offence under any international convention to which both Parties are parties shall not be considered as political offences;
- (b) the Requested Party has substantial grounds for believing that the request for extradition has been made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing the person sought on account of that person's race, sex, religion, nationality or political opinion, or that that person's position in judicial proceedings may be prejudiced for any of those reasons;
- (c) the offence for which the extradition is requested only constitutes a military offence;
- (d) the person sought has become, under the laws of either Party, immune from prosecution or execution of sentence for any reason, including lapse of time or pardon;

- (f) the person sought has been or would possibly be subjected to torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment in the Requesting Party; or
- (g) the request for extradition is made by the requesting pursuant to a judgement rendered in absentia unless the Requesting Party guarantees that the person sought has the opportunity to have the case retried in his or her presence.

ARTICLE 5

Discretionary Grounds for Refusal

Extradition may be refused if:

- (a) the Requested Party has criminal jurisdiction over the offence for which the extradition is requested in accordance with its national law, and is conducting or contemplates to institute a criminal proceeding against the person sought for that offence; or
- (b) the Requested Party, while taking into account the seriousness of the offence and the interests of the Requesting Party, considers that the extradition would be incompatible with humanitarian considerations in view of that person's age, health or other personal circumstances.

ARTICLE 6

Refusal of Extradition of Nationals

1. Each Party has discretion to refuse extradition of its nationals.
2. If extradition is not granted pursuant to Paragraph 1 of this Article, the Requested Party shall, if the Requesting Party so requests, submit the case to its competent authorities with a view to instituting criminal proceedings against the person under its national law. For this purpose, the Requesting Party shall provide the Requested Party with documents and evidence relating to the case.

ARTICLE 7

For the purpose of this Treaty, the Parties shall communicate with each other through diplomatic channels unless otherwise provided for in this treaty.

ARTICLE 8

1. The request for extradition shall be made in written form and shall include the following:
 - (a) the name of the requesting authority;
 - (b) the name, age, sex, nationality, number of identification documents,

- (c) a statement of the facts of the offence, including the time, place, conduct and consequences of the offence;
- (d) the provisions of the laws relating to criminal jurisdiction, criminalization and penalty of the offence; and
- (e) the provisions of the laws relating to time limit on prosecution or execution of sentence.

2. In addition to the provisions of Paragraph 1 of the Article:

3. The letter of request for extradition and other relevant documents submitted by the requesting party in accordance with Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall be officially signed or sealed by the competent authority of the requesting Party and be accompanied by translations into the language of the Requested Party unless the Parties agreed otherwise.

ARTICLE 9

Additional Information

If the Requested Party considers that the information furnished in support of a request for extradition is not sufficient, the Requested Party may request that additional information be furnished within thirty (30) days. If duly requested by the requesting Party, the time limit may be extended for fifteen (15) days. If the Requesting Party fails to submit additional information within that period, it shall be considered as having renounced its request voluntarily. However, the Requesting Party shall not be precluded from making a new request for extradition of the same person for the same offence.

ARTICLE 10

Provisional Arrest

1. In case of urgency, one Party may make a request to the other Party for the provisional arrest of the person sought before making a request for extradition. Such request may be submitted in writing through the channels provided for in Article 7 of this Treaty, the International Criminal Police Organisation (INTERPOL) or other channels agreed by both parties.

2. The request for provisional arrest shall contain the contents referred to in Paragraph 1 of Article 8 of this Treaty, a statement of the existence of documents referred to in Paragraph 2 of Article 8 and a statement that a formal request for extradition of the person sought will follow.

3. The Requested Party shall, without delay, inform the Requesting Party of the results of its handling of the request.

4. Provisional arrest shall be terminated, if within a period of twenty eight (28) days after the arrest of the person sought, the Requested Party has not received the formal request for extradition. If duly requested by the Requested Party, such time limit may be extended for fifteen (15) days.

5. The termination of provisional arrest pursuant to Paragraph 4 of this Article shall not prejudice the extradition of the person sought if the Requested Party has subsequently received the formal request for extradition.

ARTICLE 11

Decision on the Request for Extradition

1. The Requested Party shall handle the request for extradition in accordance with the procedures provided for by its national law, and shall promptly inform the Requesting party of its decision.

2. If the Requested Party refuses the whole or any part of the request for extradition, the reasons for refusal shall be notified to the Requesting Party.

ARTICLE 12

Surrender of the Person to be Extradited

1. If the extradition has been granted by the Requested Party, the parties shall agree on time, place and other relevant matter relating to the execution of the extradition. Meanwhile, the Requested party shall inform the Requesting Party of the period of time for which the person to be extradited has been detained prior to the surrender.

2. If the Requesting Party has not taken over the person to be extradited within fifteen (15) days after the date agreed for the execution of the extradition, the Requested Party shall release that person immediately and may refuse a new request by the Requesting Party for Extradition of that person for the same offence, unless otherwise provided for in Paragraph 3 of this Article.

3. If one Party fails to surrender or take over the person to be extradited within the agreed period for reasons beyond its control, the other party shall be notified promptly. The Parties shall once again agree on the relevant matters for the execution of the extradition, and the provisions of Paragraph 8 of this Treaty.

ARTICLE 13

Re-extradition

Where the person under extradition escapes back to the Requested Party before criminal proceedings are terminated or his sentence is served in the Requesting Party, that person may be re-extradited upon a new request for extradition made by the Requesting Party in respect of the same offence and the Requesting Party need not submit the documents and material provided for in Article 8 of this Treaty.

Extradition Treaty with China, 2021

ARTICLE 14

Postponed Extradition and Temporary Extradition

1. If the person sought is being proceeded against or is serving a sentence in the Requested Party for an offence other than that for which the extradition is requested, the Requested Party may, after having made a decision to grant extradition, postpone the extradition until the conclusion of the proceeding or the completion of the sentence. The Requested Party shall inform the Requesting Party of the Postponement.

2. If the postponement of the extradition may seriously impede the criminal proceeding in the Requesting Party, the requested Party may, upon request and to the extent that its ongoing criminal proceedings are not hindered, temporarily extradite the person sought to the Requesting Party provided that the Requesting Party undertakes to return that person unconditionally and immediately upon conclusion of the relevant proceedings.

ARTICLE 15

Requests for Extradition made by Several States

Where requests are made by two or more States including one Party for extradition of the same person either for the same offence or for different offences, the Requested Party, in determining to which State the person is to be extradited, shall consider all the relevant circumstances, in particular:

- (a) whether the requests were made pursuant to a treaty;
- (b) the gravity of different offences;
- (c) the time and place of the commission of the offence;
- (d) the nationality and habitual residence of the person sought;
- (e) respective dates of the requests; and
- (f) the possibility of subsequent extradition to a third State.

ARTICLE 16

Rule of Specialty

The person extradited in accordance with this Treaty shall not be proceeded against or subject to the execution of sentence in the Requesting Party for an offence committed by that person before his extradition other than that for which the extradition is granted, nor shall that person be extradited to a third State, unless—

- (a) the Requested Party has consented in advance. For the purpose of such consent, the Requested Party may require the submission of the documents and information referred to in Article 8 of this Treaty, and a statement by the extradited person with respect to the offence concerned;
- (b) that person has not left the Requesting Party within thirty (30) days after having been free to do so. However, this period of time shall not include the time during which that person fails to leave the requesting Party for reasons beyond his control; or

- (c) that person has voluntarily returned to the Requesting Party after leaving it.

ARTICLE 17

Handover of Property

1. If the Requesting Party so requests, the Requested Party shall, to the extent permitted by its national law, seize the proceeds and instrumentality of the offence and other property which may serve as evidence found in its territory, and when extradition is granted, shall handover the property to the Requesting Party.

2. When the extradition is granted, the property referred to in Paragraph 1 of this Article may nevertheless be handed over even if the extradition cannot be carried out owing to the death, disappearance or escape of the person sought.

3. The Requested Party may, for conducting any other pending criminal proceedings, postpone the handover of the above-mentioned property until the conclusion of the proceedings, or temporarily hand over that property on condition that the Requesting Party undertakes to return it.

4. The handover of such property shall not prejudice any legitimate rights or interest of the Requested Party or of any third party to that property. Where these rights or interests exist, the Requesting Party shall return the handed over property without charge to the Requested party or the third Party as soon as possible after conclusion of the proceedings.

ARTICLE 18

Transit

1. When one Party is to extradite a person from a third State through the territory of the other Party, it shall request the other Party for the permission of such transit. No such request is required where air transportation is used and no landing in the territory of the other Party is scheduled.

2. The Requested Party shall, insofar as not contrary to its national law, grant the request for transit made by the Requesting Party.

ARTICLE 19

Notification of Result

The requesting Party shall, upon request of the requested Party, provide the Requested Party promptly with the information on the proceedings or the execution of sentence against the extradited person or information concerning the extradition of that person to a third State.

ARTICLE 20

Expenses

Expenses arising from the procedures for extradition in the Requested Party shall be borne by that Party. Expenses of transportation and the transit expenses in connection with the handover or takeover of the extradited person shall be borne by the Requesting Party.

Extradition Treaty with China, 2021

ARTICLE 21

Relationship with Other Treaties

This Treaty shall not prevent the Parties from cooperating with each other on extradition in accordance with other treaties to which both Parties are parties.

ARTICLE 22

Settlement of Disputes

Any dispute arising from the interpretation or application of this Treaty shall be settled by consultation through diplomatic channels.

ARTICLE 23

Entry into Force, Amendment, Termination

1. Each party shall inform the other by diplomatic note that all necessary steps have been taken under its law for entry into force of this Treaty. This Treaty shall enter into force upon the thirtieth (30th) day from the day on which the later diplomatic note is received.

2. This treaty may be amended at any time by written agreement between Parties. Any such amendment will enter into force in accordance with the same procedure prescribed in Paragraph 1 of this Article and will form part of this Treaty.

3. Either party may terminate this Treaty by notice in writing through diplomatic channels at any time. Termination shall take effect on the one hundred and eightieth (180th) day after the date on which the notice is given. Termination of this Treaty shall not affect the extradition proceedings commenced prior to the termination.

4. This Treaty applies to any request presented after its entry into force even if the relevant offences occurred before the entry into force of this Treaty.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorized, have signed this Treaty.
